Director-Academics apprised of the entire process that the Institute follows, while revising the Curriculum / Syllabus.

➤ Sri C. Shekar Reddy Chairman, CII, Telangana, suggested the below mentioned points :

- Develop Center of Excellence in certain Engineering disciplines
- Take Industry problem-based projects.
- Faculty exposure to Industry through industrial visits and project works.
- Inviting Industry leaders for lectures
- Longer internships of 6 months and faculty training on specific topics in advanced technologies in the industry such as Mechatronics and Energy monitoring.
- To focus on practical learning and application in real life, which can solve problems.
- Students should be encouraged to participate in National and International technical competitions.
- Teachers should help in deep learning and understanding like mentor.
- College should tie-up with industries for training their students.
- Students should also learn soft skills and organizational skills.
- The faculty after every 5 years must be given a sabbatical, in line with the practice in US, and they must work at another institute / laboratory / industry for at least half a year.
- Every initiative to update Curricula and Laboratories must be driven by an elite group which must include specialists from other institutes of eminence and leading relevant industries.
- Encouragement to relevant industries for extended periods to gain exposure to the latest technologies and systems.
- Include internships/training in leading Industries for the students as an integral part of the Curricula.

Principal responded that majority of the points suggested by the Chairman, CII, Telangana, are in vogue, however they will be looked into once again.

Vote of Thanks: There being no other point, the meeting is concluded with vote of thanks by Prof. K. Krishnaveni, Director-Academics.

Sub: Instructions regarding Disciplinary Code to be observed during Sudhee and Shruthi - 2024 - Reg.

The National level Technical Fest - SUDHEE and the Annual Sports and Cultural Fest - SHRUTHI represent significant events for our institute to unite, commemorate our accomplishments, and highlight the remarkable talent and dedication of our students and staff.

However, it is imperative that we uphold the values and standards of our institute, especially concerning behavior and conduct. Any instance of indecent appearance, behavior, or breach of the code of conduct will undoubtedly tarnish the reputation of our institution and will be treated with the utmost seriousness.

As per the proceedings of the 26th meeting of the College Academic Committee held on 21.02.2024, the following instructions are being issued regarding disciplinary code to be observed during Sudhee and Shruthi - 2024 to ensure the smooth functioning of these events and maintain a respectful environment.

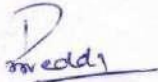

1. All students are required to carry their ID cards at all times during the events.
2. Any altercation or argument with security or staff on duty will be dealt with severely.
3. Entry Passes will be issued to parents of students and alumni. Requests for entry passes must be submitted to the AEC at least one day prior to the intended entry. A maximum of two passes will be issued on the name of each student mentioning the names of the people for whom the passes are issued.
4. Participants in the events must obtain passes through the student Convenor of the concerned event and submitted to the AEC at least one day prior to their entry.
5. Entry Pass is not transferable once issued on a particular name.

6. Only individuals possessing valid ID cards or passes will be permitted to enter into the campus.
7. Damage to institute's property will be considered as a serious offense.
8. Sharing and misusing the ID card is treated to be gross indiscipline.
9. Misbehaviour / altercations with fellow students or staff, carrying / consuming prohibited substances such as alcohol, drugs, or smoking are considered as serious offences and are highly punishable.
10. It is hereby once again instructed all the students to strictly adhere to the dress code as circulated earlier.

Severe disciplinary action, including potential expulsion from the college, may be imposed on anyone engaged in acts of indiscipline stated above but not only limited to the above.

All students must consistently adhere to the institute's disciplinary code at all times. Let us collectively uphold the integrity and reputation of our institution by exhibiting exemplary behavior during Sudhee and Shruthi events.

Your co-operation in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Report on Shruthi 2024 (SOLILOQUY)

Name of the event : Shruthi 2024
Date of the event : Feb' 28- Mar' 1-2024
Location of the event : CBIT
Organising club : Chaitanya Samskruthi

Day 1

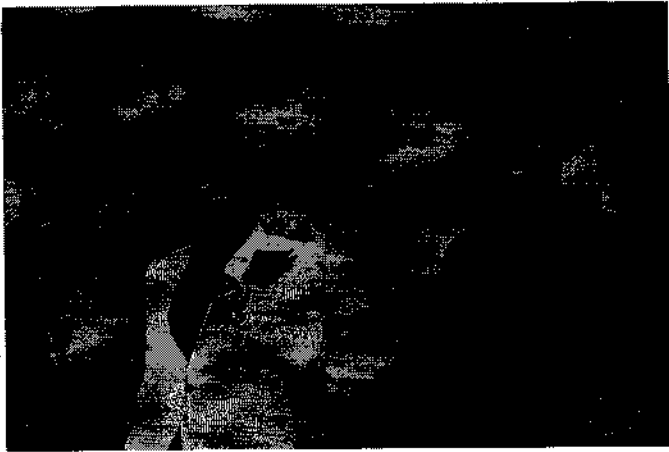

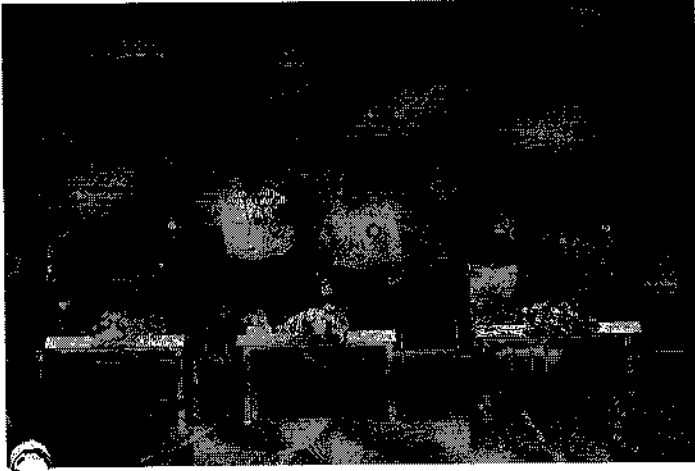

Shruthi 2024, the grand cultural extravaganza hosted by Chaitanya Bharathi Institute of Technology, marked a significant milestone as it expanded into a sprawling three-day celebration of creativity, talent, and companionship. This eagerly anticipated event received unprecedented enthusiasm and participation, earning resounding acclaim from all around. Over the course of three exhilarating days, the fest unfolded with a diverse array of captivating events, meticulously curated to cater to the interests of every member of the vibrant student and faculty community. From electrifying performances to intellectually stimulating competitions, Shruthi 2024 showcased the spirit of unity and cultural richness that defines our Institution.

Shruthi 2024 commenced on February 28th, 2024, with a grand inaugural ceremony graced by dignitaries and our esteemed Principal, Prof C.V. Narasimhulu, who ceremoniously lit the divine lamp, marking the outset of the fest. The festivities kicked off with the release of the official newsletter by Team Transcendent. Day-1 unfolded with a plethora of engaging events organized by various cultural and literary clubs. Among the highlights was the Club Parade, a much-anticipated event that saw enthusiastic participation from students across CBIT, showcasing their respective clubs alongside their faculty coordinators.

A variety of food stalls, each offering its own tempting menu, were set up on the grounds opposite the Biotechnology Block, attracting food lovers from far and wide. Some other events were Shruthi idol and Aarohana held by Chaitanya Geethi and Chaitanya Vaadya, where students were given a platform to showcase their proficiency in music. Chaitanya Chaaya also conducted Cosplay and Nukkad Natak, the former being where students dress up to be a famous personality, the latter being a street play that is a social message-oriented skit. Communicando had held events like Sceneposium, Mr and Miss Literati, Saradaga Kasepu and Bhool Bhulaiya which catered to every student's taste including language events, which helped students improve communication skills, on addition to that Toastmasters had conducted interactive events like Hunt it out, Transcendent had informative events like nation wants to know, blue's clues.

Furthermore, the photography club had events like photo showcase, photo story. The writers and poets club had events like Worthee and say it out loud which encouraged students to discover themselves with the help of words. All these events witnessed tremendous participation, bringing together the brightest talents from both within and beyond the college community.

Day 2

The second day of the three-day fest was ablaze with a myriad of engaging activities, igniting the enthusiasm sparked on the day one. Euphony, a musical band competition, and literary pursuits like Whodunnit and Mr. & Ms. Literati intertwined with thrilling events like treasure hunts and photo hunts, amplifying the fest's vibrancy. The spotlight shone on the flagship event of Chaitanya Samskruthi, "Mr. & Ms. Shruthi," a riveting competition in an open-air auditorium that captivated a vast audience. It concluded after three rounds of fierce competition, unveiling a male and female winner in a sensational climax. Amidst competitions like the 3T's Dance Competition, various college dance teams vied for the coveted title. Simultaneously, the final round of Mr. and Miss Literati by Communicando crowned two victors. In the academic sphere, the afternoon buzzed with faculty events like Antakshari and Dumb Charades, fostering laughter and camaraderie. The evening transitioned seamlessly into the awaited 'Sports Day,' where the CSE3 and CIVIL branch clinched the overall championship, sparking jubilant celebrations. As the sun set, the cricket ground transformed into a magical realm of music, featuring the Jammers Band, whose soulful melodies and dynamic performances created a captivating and unforgettable experience, leaving the audience enthralled.

The day came to a close with the highly anticipated 'Sports Day' and the distribution of prizes for all the sporting competitions held prior to the three-day Shruthi event. The ECE branch emerged victorious as the overall champions, their triumph celebrated with enthusiasm. Dr. W Rampulla Reddy, IAS (Retd.), Former Director General of NIRDPR, graced the occasion as the chief guest, while Sri Rama Krishna, an International Body builder, honoured the event as the guest of honour.

Day 3

The third day of Shruthi kicked off with a vibrant start on the 'Ethnic Day,' where the campus came alive with the beats of the Dhol and the colorful attire of Indian Traditional wear. The atmosphere was filled with energy as students and faculty danced joyously to the rhythm of traditional Indian music. Meanwhile, the photo booth and art gallery, which had been bustling with activity throughout the event, showcased beautiful artwork and captured unforgettable moments. The biggest day of the three-day Shruthi extravaganza commenced with lively Dhol beats, igniting a spirited celebration as students and faculty alike danced exuberantly to traditional Indian music. This day, dubbed as 'Ethnic Day', called for participants to don attire reflecting Indian traditional wear. It marked the final opportunity to visit the photo booth and admire the art gallery, which had been active throughout the event, showcasing remarkable artworks and preserving cherished memories.

As the sun began to set, anticipation grew for the pinnacle of Shruthi – the 'Institute Day.' This prestigious event welcomed esteemed dignitaries to the stage, where achievers from all facets of college life were honored and celebrated. Sri Burra Venkatesham, IAS, Principal Secretary of Education Department, Government of Telangana, graced the occasion as the chief guest, while Sri R P Patnaik, renowned Telugu Film Music director, as the guest of honor. From academic excellence to sporting achievements and extracurricular prowess, the Institute Day shone a spotlight on the remarkable talents within the college community. Following the Institute Day, the excitement continued to soar with 'The Cultural Night,' a dazzling showcase of talent. Cultural clubs from CBIT took centre stage, presenting a month's worth of dedication and hard work in captivating performances ranging from dance and singing to drama. With charismatic anchors adding to the glamor, the Cultural Night was a spectacle to behold.
