Dt.27-09-2024

CIRCULAR

It has come to the attention of the authorities that a WhatsApp group was created by some senior students, and money is being collected for a party while first-year students are being pressured to attend. Furthermore, as per CBIT regulations, group parties outside the campus are strictly prohibited, as any untoward incident could harm the college's reputation. Therefore, all III, V, and VII semester students are cautioned that the college will take strict action against any such gatherings held without prior approval from the college authorities.
