A webinar on Research Workflows, Research Metrics and Excellence in Academic Institutes

Please use Q&A box only for questions relevant for this webinar, Thanks!

Time: 9:30 AM

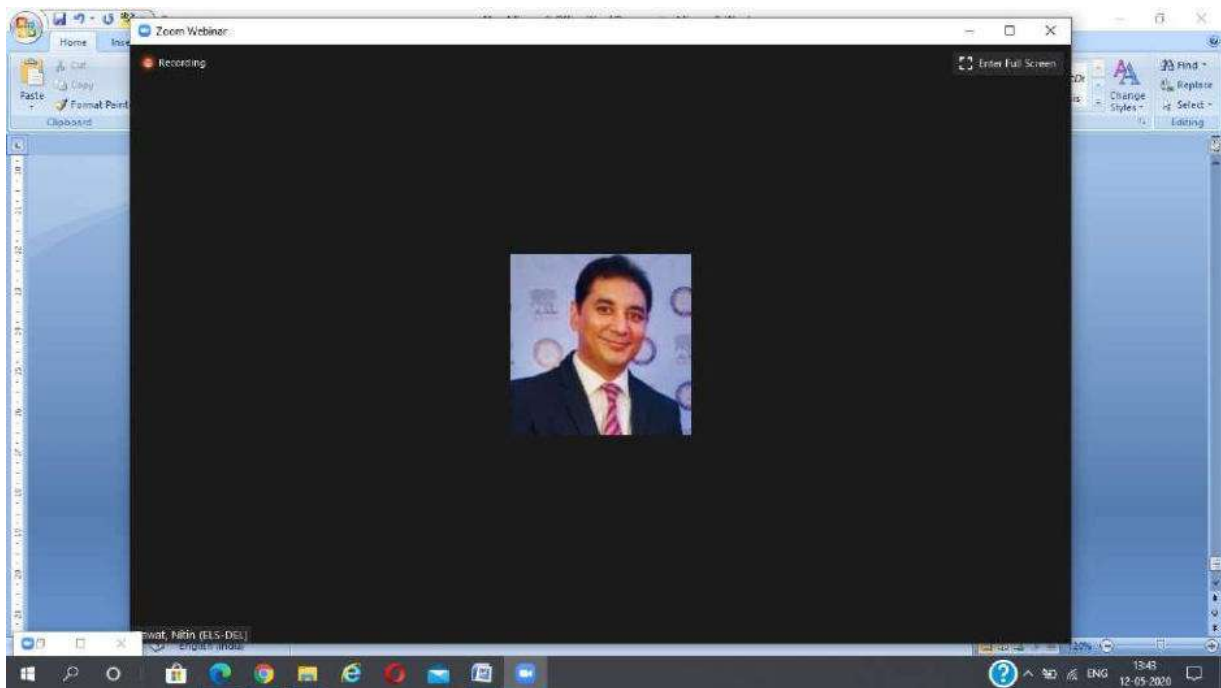

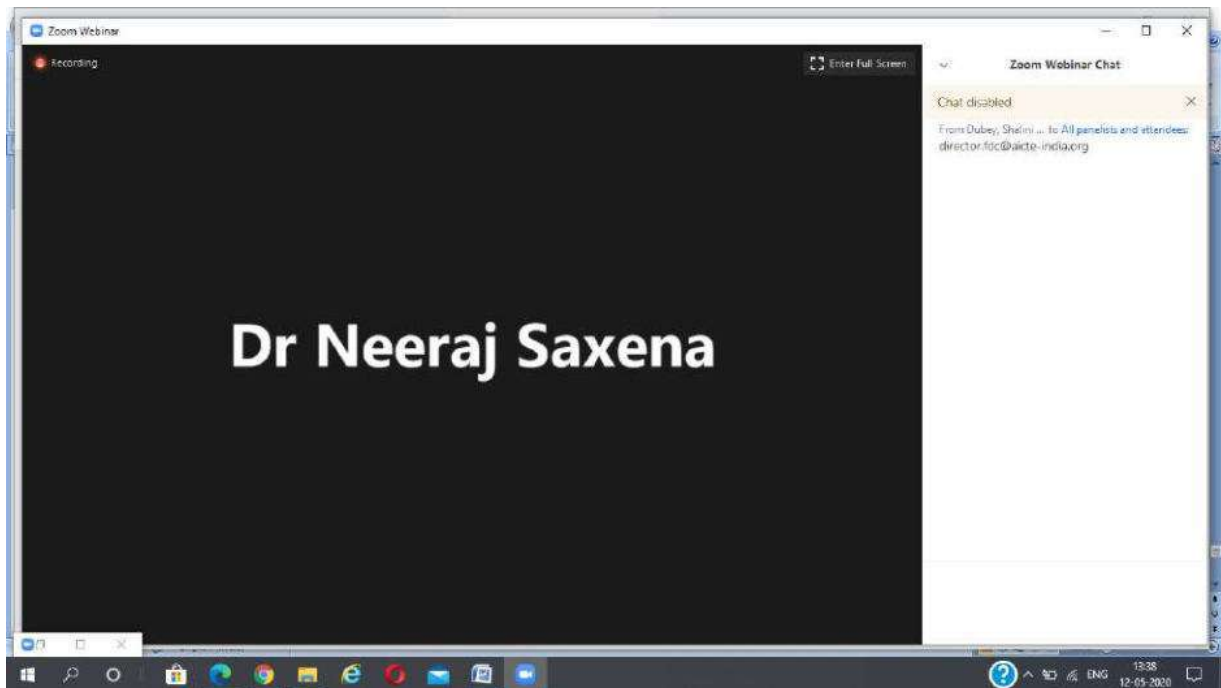

Date: May 12th, 2020

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting in progress. The main content is a presentation slide with the following text:

- Elsevier logo
- Efficient Measures For Research Workflow Management
- Dr Shubhra Dutta, PhD
Customer Consultant, Elsevier

The slide also features a decorative orange leaf pattern on the right side. The Zoom interface includes a Gmail sidebar on the left with options like Compose, Inbox (237), Starred, Snoozed, Sent, Drafts (12), and ALC (5). The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the time as 09:42 on 12-05-2020.

The screenshot shows a YouTube video player with a slide titled "Qualitative Analysis" by Signicent. The slide lists "3. Bibliographic Factors" and includes the following points:

- These factors need to be considered as they make huge direct impact on the values of the patent
- Number of independent claims - More the number of independent claims more value the patent possesses
- Number of dependent claims - More the dependent claim more descriptive the patent is
- Number of words in first independent claim - More the number of words lesser broad the technology is described
- Forward citations - High number of forward citations has high value and may form the base of the technologies that are yet to come.
- Backward Citations - The patent which has high number of backward citations has low value.
- International Family - More number of patent families helps to cover the more dominant countries in which the patent has high value.

The video player shows 3,988 watching now, 1K likes, and 18 comments. The channel is MHRD Innovation Cell.

This screenshot is identical to the one above but includes a "Top chat" window on the right side of the video player. The chat contains the following messages:

- Sarmathi vasan college for women, madurai
- Tanisha thappa - Hi, tanisha thappa from central university of jammu

Dear all,

As per the advice given by the Advisor-RCG, It is hereby directed to all the research coordinators to register for the following webinar without fail. Please find the trailing mail, regarding Invitation to join a webinar on "Research Workflows, Research Metrics, and Excellence in Academic Institutes" organized by AICTE and Elsevier.

As departmental research coordinators, you are all expected to know the AICTE research policies, and this is the best opportunity to get exposed to the latest information in this area. Also kindly note that AICTE has been sanctioning several projects to CBIT and our participation will help us a lot.

The detailed schedule and the link for Pre-registration are given below.

This is for your kind information.

Note: The registrations for 6th and 12th May 2020 may have been completed. Therefore, better to register on 14 May 2020 as early as possible.

Best wishes
Sarma

Dear Sir/ Madam,

The outbreak of COVID pandemic in India has caused extreme distress to the academic community and is a setback to academic activity. In this moment of crisis, AICTE has endeavored to leverage digital access for the continuation of the academic activities through online mechanisms. To keep engaging with community of researchers, AICTE & Elsevier are co-organizing a webinar on "Research Workflows, Research Metrics and Excellence in Academic Institutes". This Webinar will help the participants in knowing more about ways to manage your research workflows, research metrics etc and also the R&D Schemes of AICTE. If you are a researcher, do make it a point to attend this Webinar.

Agenda of this Webinar
