Report (2023-24)

Chaitanya Bharathi Institute of Technology has an active NSS unit, student professional bodies and other clubs for organizing its various events and out-reach programmes throughout the year. A faculty member is appointed as the NSS Programme Officer, student members and student volunteers are the members for extending NSS activities. From time-to time prior discussion is held with the committee members to chalk out the plan to carry out the activities.

CBIT NSS has organised extension activities and outreach programmes conducted during the current Academic Year are:

- Conducted awareness programmes like celebration of Quami- Ekth Week and its importance, Blood Donation, Conservation Day, Human Rights Day, CPR Awareness and Training Session, etc.
- Other activities include Unity Day and Women's Day celebrations, Services at orphanages and old age homes, YUVA, Anti-Ragging Awareness, Blood donation Camp, School Visit, Environmental awareness by plantation activities, Eye-checkup camp, Seminar on Menstrual Education – Health and Hygiene, Book donation drive, Visit to Akshaya Patra and Bhoomi pooja.

The community outreach programs were organized in the current academic year as follows:

- In-service community activities involve collaborating with villagers to raise awareness about the importance of voting.
- The ACIC-CBIT team organized several programs to address community challenges more effectively. Through the Outreach program, students actively engage with the community, providing support in various areas such as counselling, guidance, and essential needs like shelter, food, clothing, and employment opportunities. With a focus on building trust and fostering strong relationships, students, guided by dedicated teachers, aim to inspire and empower community members to explore opportunities and overcome challenges, ultimately improving their quality of life.

Moranchapalli Visit (July, 2023)

The CBIT NSS members visited Moranchapalli village in July 2023, delivering 450 kilograms of rice and 200 kilograms of vegetables collected through their campaign. The supplies provided immediate relief to the flood-affected community. Beyond donations, the students listened to villagers' stories of loss and hardships. The visit highlighted empathy, solidarity, and the NSS club's commitment to societal impact, leaving a lasting impression on both students and villagers.

Anti-Ragging awareness week (12/08/2023 - 19/08/2023)

NSS CBIT organized a Logo Designing and Slogan Making Contest from August 12 to 19 to promote awareness against ragging. The event provided students a platform to creatively express their dedication to eradicating ragging. Through creative avenues participants had contributed their unique perspectives and insights towards this crucial cause, and Winner of logo design and slogan writing, Bhupathi Vamshi Krishna was also appreciated. By actively participating in these activities, individuals contribute to spreading awareness about the negative consequences of ragging and the importance of maintaining a respectful and supportive atmosphere within the campus.
