A candidate is considered qualified if the marks secured are greater than or equal to the qualifying marks mentioned for the category, for which a valid category certificate, if applicable, must be produced along with this Score Card.

This Score Card is valid up to 31st March 2027.

GATE SCORE COMPUTATION

The GATE 2024 score is calculated using the formula

$$\text{GATE Score} = S_q + (S_t - S_q) \frac{(M - M_q)}{(M_t - M_q)}$$

where

M is the normalised marks obtained by the candidate in the paper mentioned on the GATE 2024 Score Card

M_q is the qualifying marks for general category candidates in the paper

M_t is the mean of marks of top 0.1% or top 10 (whichever is larger) of all the candidates who appeared for the test paper (i.e., including all sessions)

$S_q = 350$, is the score assigned to M_q

$S_t = 900$, is the score assigned to M_t

M_q is 25 marks (out of 100) or $\mu + \sigma$, whichever is greater. Here μ is the mean and σ is the standard deviation of marks of all the candidates who appeared for the test paper.

GRADUATE APTITUDE TEST IN ENGINEERING 2024

अभियांत्रिकी स्नातक अभिक्षमता परीक्षा २०२४

ORGANISING INSTITUTE: INDIAN INSTITUTE OF SCIENCE, BENGALURU

SCORE CARD

COMPUTATION OF NORMALISED MARKS

Computer Science and Information Technology (CS) and Civil Engineering (CE) were conducted in two sessions in GATE 2024. For such multisession papers, a suitable normalisation is applied to take into account any variation in the difficulty levels of the question papers across sessions. The normalisation is done based on the assumption that, in multisession GATE papers, the distribution of the abilities of the candidates is nearly the same across sessions. This assumption is reasonable because the number of candidates appearing for the test papers is large, the number of candidates allotted to the sessions are comparable, and the procedure for allocation of candidates to the sessions is random.

The normalised marks of the j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session, denoted by \hat{M}_{ij} , are computed as

$$\hat{M}_{ij} = \frac{\bar{M}_t^g - M_q^g}{\bar{M}_{ti} - M_{iq}} (M_{ij} - M_{iq}) + M_q^g$$

where

M_{ij} is the actual marks obtained by the j^{th} candidate in the i^{th} session

\bar{M}_t^g is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates considering all sessions

M_q^g is the sum of mean and standard deviation of marks of the candidates in the paper considering all sessions

\bar{M}_{ti} is the average marks of the top 0.1% of the candidates in the i^{th} session and

M_{iq} is the sum of the mean and standard deviation of marks in the i^{th} session.

Qualifying in GATE 2024 does not guarantee admission to a postgraduate program or scholarship/financial assistance. Admitting institutes may conduct additional tests or interviews for final selection of candidates.

Graduate Aptitude Test in Engineering (GATE) 2024 was organised by Indian Institute of Science, Bengaluru, on behalf of National Coordination Board (NCB) - GATE for the Department of Higher Education, Ministry of Education (MoE), Government of India.

Please take the time to read the important information about your Course on the following pages.

Accept your offer

There is strong demand for our courses and this offer does not guarantee you a place.

If there is a deadline stated in this offer, you need to accept by the deadline or the offer will lapse. If no deadline is stated and you wish to confirm your place, we recommend accepting this offer within 10 business days of receiving it.

The University reserves the right to withdraw this offer at any time by notice to you, including if available places are filled or to comply with government regulations.

Once you have read that information, your next step is to accept your offer online. Please log in to your Sydney Student portal at: sydneystudent.sydney.edu.au, select 'My Applications', then 'Respond to offer'.

To accept this offer you must also pay in-full, the initial payment listed in the table above. You may choose to pay more than the initial payment before your course starts. If you wish to pay more than the initial payment, this can be done through the acceptance process and the available balance will be used for future units you enrol in.

Please note that you will not be able to enrol until you have accepted your offer. We will contact you at a later date with instructions about how to enrol. It is your responsibility to keep a copy of this letter and any receipts you receive for your payment of tuition fees and non-tuition fees.

If you are intending to apply for a student visa, we encourage you to apply as early as possible to avoid delays to your arrival in Australia. International students enrolled at the university are not permitted to remain enrolled unless they have a valid visa with study rights for the full duration of a course. International students should be aware of the visa conditions attached to their visa. Certain temporary visa holders are restricted from applying for a student visa while in Australia. Please ensure to refer to the Department of Home Affairs for up-to-date information about visa details and conditions.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you arrive in time for start of semester. Should you be delayed and commence your study after the semester start date, you will be unable to use late enrolment as grounds for special consideration of assessments and exams. The final date to enrol in your preferred units of study can be found on the University's website under Study dates: sydney.edu.au/students/study-dates.

Please also refer to the University's Find a Course website at: sydney.edu.au/courses for assumed knowledge requirements that may apply to your course.

Please also refer to the University's Study Dates website at sydney.edu.au/study/study-dates for current details of key dates including planned holiday breaks.

Overseas Student Health Cover

It is a condition of your student visa that you maintain Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for the duration of your studies. OSHC needs to be arranged around the same time you accept your offer to study. The University can arrange OSHC on your behalf, or you can purchase OSHC from one of the following current Australian Government-approved providers:

- Australian Health Management
- BUPA Australia
- Medibank Private
- Allianz OSHC
- nib OSHC
- CBHS International Health

Further information on OSHC can be found at [Subclass 500 Student visa \(homeaffairs.gov.au\)](http://Subclass 500 Student visa (homeaffairs.gov.au)).

The University has a preferred provider agreement with Bupa (OSHC) under which the University can arrange OSHC on your behalf. Under this agreement, the University receives a commission based on a percentage of the premium paid for a policy, and other benefits from Bupa, for facilitating OSHC for international students. The commission and other benefits will be used to support initiatives that improve the international student experience at the University. If you elect to have the University arrange your OSHC on your behalf, you will be required to pay for your OSHC at the time of accepting your offer. You can find further information on arranging OSHC through the University at [Overseas Student Health Cover \(sydney.edu.au\)](http://Overseas Student Health Cover (sydney.edu.au)). If you choose to obtain OSHC with another provider, you must provide evidence of your OSHC when applying for a student visa.

Please note that the OSHC amount quoted above is an indicative amount based on coverage of a single person under the University's preferred provider agreement with Bupa. This amount may change if you elect to amend the type of cover and a final quote will be calculated when you accept your offer.

Training and placements

Based on the current underlying Course structure, students in the Course are not required to undertake compulsory work-based training, placements or other training. However, if you later select to enrol in particular units of study or streams then you may be required to do so. If you select a particular stream or units of study it is important for you to read the information and understand any specific enrolment and/or professional registration requirements. Further information can be found here: sydney.edu.au/students/course-required-placements.

Important information about your offer

Please note that places to this course are subject to a strict enrolment quota. This unconditional offer confirms that you have met the minimum academic requirements for admission to the course but does not guarantee your place in the enrolment quota.

To confirm your place, you must accept your offer of admission via the online acceptance system and submit evidence of payment, such as a payment receipt, to international.admissions@sydney.edu.au by no later than 27th September 2024.

Students with an unconditional offer who have not completed the acceptance and made tuition fee payment by the deadline will have their offer withdrawn.

Supporting documents

The University accepts scanned documents submitted online in support of applications for admission to courses. All supporting documents must be true and complete records. You should be prepared to provide original documents or original certified copies of supporting documents upon request at any time.

Documents submitted in a language other than English must be accompanied by a complete English translation. The University accepts translations to English made by an accredited translator with a government body, the Registrar of the issuing institution or, for international applicants, registered University education Agents who are designated translators.

Please note that detailed checking of supporting documents is an inherent element of our admissions process and may involve contacting the original issuing authority, relevant tertiary admissions centre, organisation, or individual, as required, to verify documents. A failure to provide documents on request, or the discovery of either fraudulent documents or a misrepresentation of true circumstances in association with your application, may lead to the rejection of your application for admission, the withdrawal of your offer, or the cancellation of your enrolment.

Important information about fees

The tuition fee set out in this offer is indicative only. The exact tuition fee that you pay will depend on the calendar year in which you undertake your study in the course.

Tuition fees

The tuition fee set out in this offer is based on a full-time student enrolment load of 48 credit points per year (1.0 Equivalent Full Time Study Load). If your study load is more or less than 1.0 EFTSL, your tuition fee will differ from the indicative fee set out in this offer.

Tuition fees are subject to annual review by the University and will increase each calendar year of your study, effective at the start of each calendar year.

The exact tuition fees that you will pay for your specific enrolment in any given semester (or research period) will be set out in your 'Student Financial Statement'. This Statement will be generated, and available within 24 hours in your Sydney Student portal, once you have submitted your enrolment selections prior to the relevant University census date.

If you fail to pay tuition fees, student services amenities fees or other amounts due to the University, the University may take steps including limiting your access to services or your academic record, refusing you re-enrolment or cancelling your enrolment. The University will implement sanctions in accordance with the 'Student Debtor Sanctions Policy 2014' (as may be amended or replaced from time to time) which can be found at: sydney.edu.au/policies.

Student Services and Amenities Fee (not included in the tuition fees above)

The Student Services and Amenities fee (SSA Fee) was introduced by the Australian Government to increase student support and facilities at Australian universities. Please note that the SSA Fee listed in this offer is indicative of the year stated, and based on a full-time student enrolment load of 48 credit points per year (1.0 Equivalent Full Time Study Load). You will be required to pay a SSA Fee each semester for your study in a course. The SSA Fee is subject to annual review by the University, and will increase each year of your period of study (subject to a Government specified cap on indexation), effective at the start of each calendar year. For further information about the SSA Fee, due dates for payment, and payment deferral for eligible students, please consult the University's webpage at: sydney.edu.au/students/ssaf.

Additional Expenses

Please note that for some courses there are additional expenses in addition to the course fee. Some of these additional costs are significant, for example, course-specific materials, tools, protective clothing and equipment. Please consult the University's web page for more information: sydney.edu.au/students/materials-equipment.

Method of Payment

There are a number of ways that you can pay the fees that apply to your study. Be aware, a surcharge will apply for payments made using a debit or credit card. Find a list of the applicable card payment fees on our website. The surcharge is subject to review and may change. Information about payment methods can be found on our website sydney.edu.au/students/paying-fees

Recognition of Prior Learning

Your previous studies may allow you to reduce the length of your studies in this Course, depending on their relevance. The University's policies are available at the Policy Register at: sydney.edu.au/policies. You should consult with the Student Centre for more specific information about your eligibility and apply for credit via your Student Portal.

Status of Deferral

Please consult the 'Coursework Policy 2014' (as may be amended or replaced from time to time) at: sydney.edu.au/policies for up-to-date information about the University's policies on deferral.

Changes to your student status

The University's 'Coursework Policy 2014' (which can be found at: sydney.edu.au/policies) provides information about residency changes and how any changes will affect your offer of admission and fee liability. The Policy may be amended or replaced from time to time, and you must consult this Policy for up-to-date information about changes to student status.

As at the date of this offer letter, your offer is valid for admission to the University as an international student.

Subject to changes to the Policy (which it is your responsibility to consult), if you are granted domestic status (Australia citizenship, Australian Permanent Residency or New Zealand citizenship), you must advise the University immediately by:

- a. notifying the Admissions Office in writing if domestic status is granted before accepting your offer; or
- b. submitting a Change of Residency/Visa request through your Student Portal if domestic status is granted after accepting your offer.

You should note that, if you are granted domestic status (Australian citizenship, Australian Permanent Residency or New Zealand citizenship) prior to enrolling in your offered course, you must be re-assessed for admission to a Commonwealth Supported Place (CSP). At the date of this offer and subject to changes to relevant laws and University rules and policies, if you are successfully assessed by the University for admission to a CSP and there are CSPs available in the course, you will be offered a CSP. Prior to enrolling in your offered course, if you are not successfully assessed for admission to a CSP, or there are no CSPs available in your course, your offer of admission will be cancelled and withdrawn. For information about residency changes while you are enrolled, please consult the above Policy.

University Rules and Policies

As part of agreeing to the terms and conditions of this offer (including the terms and conditions set out at Annexure A to this letter), you agree to comply with the University's rules and policies that exist from time to time. The University's rules and policies are listed on the University's Policy Register at: sydney.edu.au/policies. The University may amend these rules and policies from time to time, and you must consult the University's Policy Register for the most up-to-date information.

To the extent that there is any inconsistency with the terms of this offer, and the rules and policies of the University, the rules and policies prevail.

If you have queries about your offer, please see our information online at: sydney.edu.au/study/find-a-course/postgraduate-study/postgraduate-courses or contact our admissions team by email at international.admissions@sydney.edu.au.

Thank you for your application and we look forward to welcoming you to the University.

Kind regards,

Wen Chai,
Director, Admissions
For and on behalf of the Dean/Head of School and Dean

Annexure A: Terms and conditions

By accepting this offer, you understand and agree that:

1. You have been informed about, provided information on, and you understand:
 - the details of the course you will undertake, including a general description of the content, the qualification that will be gained on completion (if applicable), the duration of the course, the teaching and assessment methods used, and the details and location of any other provider involved in delivering the course;
 - the requirements for admission into your course, including level of English language proficiency, educational qualifications or work experience required and whether course credit may be applicable, details of which can be found again here: sydney.edu.au/courses/search.
 - the facilities, classroom equipment and learning resources that will be available to you;
 - the grounds on which your enrolment may be deferred, suspended or cancelled, and you accept any conditions on your enrolment set out in your unconditional offer letter;
 - the Education Services for Overseas Student (ESOS) framework available at internationaleducation.gov.au/Regulatory-Information/Pages/Regulatoryinformation.aspx;
 - details of all fees you will be required to pay (which you accept as set out in your unconditional offer and may be subject to change in accordance with University policy) and the International Student Fee Refund Policy 2017 (full details of which are included in your offer letter and displayed during offer acceptance);
 - the local environment in which you will be studying, including location of the campus or campuses, accommodation options and approximate costs of living.
2. If you are accompanied by any school-aged dependants, you will be required to pay their full fees if they are enrolled in either a government or a non-government school. More information on school tuition costs is available at: studyinaustralia.gov.au/english/live-in-australia/living-costs.
3. You must provide the University with details of your Australian residential address, email address, mobile telephone number and emergency contact details within 7 days of arrival in Australia or within 7 days of any change to these details whilst you are enrolled in the course.
4. Your enrolment at the University is subject to relevant Australian State and Federal legislation.
5. Unless as part of offer acceptance you have specifically declined any credit offered to you, you accept any course credit set out in your unconditional offer letter.
6. You have definite access to funds that cover your tuition and associated living costs. You understand that, if you should experience any financial difficulties, you (or your sponsor) will continue to be responsible for your own living expenses and that you will not be able to seek fee assistance or other financial assistance from the University.
7. You will comply with the University's rules and policies for admission, enrolment and progression.
8. You will advise the University of any change to the information you have provided.
9. The information collected on this form is needed by the University in order to process your application and to ensure the University complies with its legal obligations. These obligations include requirements under the Education Services for Overseas Students Act 2000 (and its associated National Code and Regulations) (together "the ESOS Laws") and to ensure student compliance with the conditions of their visas and their obligations under Australian immigration laws generally. The collected information will be provided to the Australian Government and designated authorities (including the NSW Government) and, if relevant, the ESOS Assurance Fund Manager, in accordance with the ESOS laws and where specific requests are made for compliance and monitoring purposes. In all other instances, use and disclosure of the collected information will be in accordance with the University's Privacy Policy. The University's Privacy Policy is available at sydney.edu.au/privacy.shtml.
10. You have read the University's International Student Fee Refund Policy 2017.
11. The University's Resolution of Complaints Policy sets out the general principles applicable to complaints or appeals made under other University policies and procedures. It applies in relation to University conduct related to applicants for admission to the University in regard to complaints about non-academic matters. The Student Complaints Procedures 2015 provide how complaints may be raised (including informal resolution and how to raise a complaint) and how they will be assessed and resolved and prescribe the manner in which the University will conduct investigations where required.
12. This written agreement, and the right to make complaints and seek appeals of decisions and action under various processes, does not affect the rights of the student to take action under the Australian Consumer Law if the Australian Consumer Law applies.
13. By enrolling, you will be subject to the 'Intellectual Property Policy 2016' as amended or replaced from time to time ('Intellectual Property Policy'). The current version of the Intellectual Property Policy is available by searching the University's Policy Register at sydney.edu.au/policies.
14. The procedure on the refund of tuition fees constitutes a written agreement between the University and the student for the purposes of ESOS laws. The current version of the 'International Student Fee Refund Policy 2017'

- is available by searching the University's Policy Register at sydney.edu.au/policies, and may be amended or replaced from time to time. The 'International Student Fee Refund Policy 2017' is also set out at Annexure B.
15. In the event the University is unable to fully deliver the course and meet its default obligations, you can seek the assistance of the Tuition Protection Service (TPS), an initiative of the Australian Government. The TPS ensures that international students are able to either (i) complete their studies in another course or with another education provider; or (ii) receive a refund on your unspent tuition fees. Further details can be found at the Government website here: tps.gov.au/Home/NotLoggedIn.
 16. Despite any publication, announcement or advice, the University is not obliged to offer a particular course or unit of study in any particular semester, and may change arrangements for courses or units of study, including in respect of staffing, content or location.

Stony Brook University

Dear Siddharth Balaji Pampari,

Congratulations! Stony Brook University is pleased to extend an offer of Full Time admission to the Applied Math & Stat MS Quantitative Finance for Fall 2024. As a community of scholars, we want to make sure that you are supported throughout your education. This letter contains information about the enrollment process and systems you will need going forward.

The admission comes without program financial support, however we encourage you to file the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA).

Please accept or decline your admission offer via the decision reply form. Please do this as soon as possible as failure to respond promptly may result in forfeiture of the offer of admission.

Your deadline to accept your offer is: May 15, 2024

Please note that you will need your Stony Brook ID 116473994 for all inquiries, including email correspondence. You will need this ID to access SOLAR, Stony Brook University's enterprise-wide, self-service system which provides students with online access to manage personal information. Students use SOLAR to register for classes, print schedules, view and pay bills, update personal contact information, view transcripts, and submit student employment timesheets. Your initial password is your six-digit birth date (e.g., 080284 for August 2, 1984). You need to change this password the first time you log in (you will receive a message stating your password has expired). Click the link to change your password. If you are a current Stony Brook student or employee, your ID and password remain the same.

Your admission is contingent upon your successful completion of any current academic coursework and receipt of all final official transcripts. Please be sure to arrange for your final transcripts to be sent to the Graduate School Office of Admissions and Student Services.

An "Admissions Enrollment Checklist" is included with this letter to assist you with your next steps. Your individual program may also contact you separately with additional information. Please be sure to review and carefully consider all the information you receive when deciding to accept your offer. If you have any questions, please contact the Graduate School Office of Admissions and Student Services at (631) 444-2111 or gradadmissions@stonybrook.edu

Again, congratulations on your acceptance to Stony Brook University. I look forward to welcoming you to our campus community.

Sincerely,

Applied Math & Stat MS
